

The Benevolent Society of Blues

The Benevolent Society of Blues, or BSB as it is more commonly known, exists to help Blues support Blues. We have been doing this very successfully for nearly 200 years and with your help we will continue to do this for many years to come.

What do we do?

Much of the work of the BSB involves financial support, through grants and loans, to those in need. The most common forms of help are for:

- Assistance with further education
- Help for older persons
- Support during mid-life difficulties caused by health, employment or family problems

We also 'Present' the children of Old Blues to be educated at Christ's Hospital.

We are a registered charity, so the people we can help are strictly defined and have to show that they meet the criteria of 'need, hardship or distress'.

What can you do?

1 Put us in touch with Blues who may be in need

We suspect that there are those who could benefit from the BSB from whom we have not heard. If you think that you or someone you know falls into that category please let us know. You do not need to assess whether the person qualifies – just provide the contact in confidence and we will investigate.

2 Make a Donation

If you would like to help with this work by making a donation please complete the attached form and Gift Aid Declaration.
